

apartment for sale Moncada, Horta Nord

There are homes that don't need to be perfect to make you imagine a life inside them, because perfection is something you create yourself when you turn a place into a home.~~The living room opens onto the balcony, allowing natural light to flood in and give the home that warm, welcoming feeling that makes a house feel truly alive. A lovely space to imagine long conversations, peaceful mornings, or simply enjoying everyday life.~~Its 3 bedrooms offer space to grow, relax, work from home, or begin new chapters.~The kitchen, together with the utility gallery and interior patio, provides that extra practical space that makes everyday living so much easier: more room, more storage, and an independent area that is always appreciated in a home.~~This is one of those opportunities that are becoming harder and harder to find: a spacious, welcoming property full of potential, ready to slowly become the home you have always imagined.~~It has not been fully renovated, but that is part of its charm: you can move in from day one and transform it little by little at your own pace, filling it with details, memories, and life.~~Because there are houses you simply buy... and others you truly feel.~~Located in the Ermita area of Moncada, one of the town's quietest and most pleasant neighborhoods, where you can still feel a true sense of community and authentic everyday life. A comfortable area for daily living, with nearby services, shops, parks, and excellent connections to Valencia — perfect for those looking to enjoy a peaceful lifestyle without giving up the convenience of having everything close at hand.
