apartment for sale Paterna, Horta Oest

Yes, we know.~The photos look like they came straight from Pinterest or were AIgenerated.~But they're real. And this is probably one of the most beautiful, well designed and personality filled homes you'll find right now.~~There are renovated apartments... and then there are homes where every single detail has been carefully designed to create comfort, harmony and style.~~Natural light becomes one of the property's greatest features from the very first moment. The spacious living dining room is filled with sunlight throughout the day, creating a warm and elegant atmosphere that completely transforms the space.~~The kitchen deserves special mention.~~Large, sophisticated and designed to truly enjoy everyday life. It offers exceptional storage capacity perfectly integrated into the design, combining practicality and aesthetics in a way that is difficult to find.~~The bathroom feels like something out of a boutique hotel or an interior design magazine. Elegant materials, ambient lighting and a refined atmosphere turn everyday routines into moments of relaxation.~~The master bedroom has been fully custom designed, making intelligent use of every centimetre and creating a rare sense of calm, balance and order.~~The property currently features a huge double children's bedroom, although the original layout included three bedrooms, meaning the third bedroom could easily be restored if desired.~~Storage is another major highlight of this apartment. The hallway includes floor to ceiling bespoke wardrobes, providing an exceptional amount of practical storage space.~~The apartment also offers a charming balcony, ideal for enjoying a coffee, relaxing or simply taking a break outdoors.~~Beyond the renovation and interior design, the location makes this property even more attractive.~~Situated in a well connected and established area close to all services, shops, schools, public transport and green areas, this home offers both convenience and quality of life.~~A move in ready apartment with style, warmth, natural light and a truly unique personality.~~Because some apartments are simply visited.~And others... you instantly know won't stay on the market for long.
