

apartment for sale Villena, Alt Vinalopó

The stairs are not really an issue: they are comfortable, with wide, low steps that are easy to manage day to day.~~This is a compact, well-designed home with plenty of natural light and a warm atmosphere that reflects the care and attention of its current owner, who has lived here for nearly 30 years.~~Ready to move into, with a renovated kitchen and bathroom, and most of the furniture included.~It also offers clear potential for improvement: thanks to its layout, a refurbishment could create two bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, opening up a more attractive investment opportunity.~~Villena currently has a limited supply of well-presented, functional rental properties, particularly in the town centre. This makes this type of property, if well configured, suitable both for personal use and for generating rental income.~~The building is quiet, with only eight neighbours, and includes access to a rooftop terrace, which always adds valuable extra space.
