

commercial premise for sale Balco De Tarragona, Tarragonès

An excellent opportunity to acquire a fully operational and well-established pet business located in the heart of Tarragona city centre. The business has been successfully trading for several years, building a strong loyal customer base and generating consistent turnover and proven profitability.~~The business operates across multiple revenue streams, including pet grooming and washing services, as well as the sale of pet food, specialised feeds, and pet accessories, creating a well-balanced and resilient commercial model.~~Located in a prime central location with excellent transport links, the shop benefits from high visibility and pedestrian traffic, which has helped develop a stable and repeat customer base over time.~~This is a fantastic opportunity for entrepreneurs looking to acquire an already operational business, avoiding the usual risks and start-up challenges associated with launching a new venture. It is also particularly suitable for international buyers or expatriates wishing to establish a business in Spain with an existing operational structure, customer base and income history. The business also offers strong potential for future growth and expansion, including the possibility of introducing new services, developing online sales, or adding complementary product lines.~~For confidentiality reasons, detailed business information, financial records, exact location details, and original photographs will only be provided after signing a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA). The photographs shown in the listing do not correspond to the actual business premises.~~If you are looking to invest in a profitable, well-established business with strong growth potential, we will be delighted to assist you and provide further information. Please contact us for more details, we will be very happy to help you.
