

commercial for sale Maroñas, Noya

Transfer restaurant in a prime location in the south of Tenerife~A fully functioning restaurant is transferred in one of the most emblematic, consolidated and recognized areas of the south of Tenerife, a first-class enclave with a large influx of both residents and visitors throughout the year. Its strategic location, in a tourist environment of high demand and maximum visibility, makes this property an exceptional opportunity to continue an already consolidated activity or develop a new gastronomic concept with great projection.~The business is fully operational and is delivered turnkey, with all licenses in force, complete equipment and a solid structure that allows to maintain activity without interruptions from the first day. The place has large interior spaces and an outdoor terrace, which reinforces its attractiveness and versatility.~It currently works with an already implemented restoration concept, although its location and characteristics make it especially interesting for those looking for a space adaptable to different kitchen styles. In addition, it has human equipment included and professional advice to facilitate an agile and safe transition.~A unique opportunity to invest in a business with a track record, in a well-known area of the south of the island, where the location, the visibility and the constant flow of customers provide a real differential value.
