

country house for sale Couselo, Baixo Miño

Location

Couselo is part of O Rosal, a Spanish municipality located in the southern part of the Baixo Miño region, in the province of Pontevedra, an autonomous community of Galicia.

The cottage is set in a green area close to a river and only 8 kms away from the sea and the second biggest celtic ruins of Europe in Santa Tecla Mountain.

This area is well known as a wine production with excellent quality like Albariño and beautiful beaches. Good access to the highway and a few kilometers away from the border with Portugal.

Description

The site extends to 1491 square meters and has most recently been used as a cottage farm which sets in a sunny and peaceful position on the edge of Rias Baixas.

This site offers secure access with hard standing road running all the way to the plot which is delimited with stone walls.

House

This is a four bedroom semi detached cottage (90 m²) with two entrance accesses from the front and back yard that needs to be reformed. It is distributed in a groundfloor used for storage/private parking and the living area on the first floor. It has water, electricity and sewer utilities.

There are further facilities including supermarket, gp, garage, DIY stores, primary school, nursery, music school and farm market.

There are also many walks nearby.

This is a rural escape where you can build your dream home and explore the best of what the countryside has to offer.
