

country house for sale Guntimil, Limia

This large 18th century mansion located in Guntimil, very close to Xinzo de Limia, is up for sale, to carry out its comprehensive restoration and lovingly return it to the splendor of yesteryear.

For this purpose, it has a living area of almost 800m² spread over the 3 buildings that give shape to the beautiful central patio, porticoed on one side and recently preserved with new materials.

There are elements inside that preserve the character of the manor intact: the beautiful fireplace already restored, the solaina, the stone seen on some walls and the 40m² cellar excavated in the rock. Also with delight, 3 sundials, 2 coats of arms of the former owners and 3 stone carvings that remain within the construction itself are discovered. Of course this house is supplied with abundant water and for that it has its own spring, a 200m deep auger well and a normal ring well.

Attached to the main house, you have to value and be amazed when entering the chapel by the perfect state of conservation it has, and for its part the transept at the main entrance and the 2 crenellated gates of the 2 entrances, all symbols of the grandeur of a Galician manor, provide a lot of charm and sobriety.

From the outside of the half-hectare property you can enjoy spectacular unobstructed views of the entire Alta-Limia. The village of facilities in Lobios, Allariz, Ourense...
