

country house for sale Pena, Betanzos

Beautiful rectory house in the heart of Oza-Cesuras, La Coruña. House composed at different heights in granite stone and noble wood. It keeps the essence of the medieval building that it was and its location invites reflection and tranquility. Ideal for business or home away from the noise of the city. On its ground floor it houses the old entrance with 1 bedroom with bathroom and access to an old cellar on 2 levels that is now a room. From this entrance we access the interior of the house where we find a full bathroom, 1 living room and 1 dining room. Here we can see semicircular arches and the old columns of the house. From this height, through some rustic stairs, we access the typical kitchen of Galician houses that preserves a hearth and oven, this room has a ceiling 8 meters high, directly from the kitchen we can go out to a beautiful back porch where we find a warehouse that It houses the facilities room, or going up some old stairs we access another living room, 2 bedrooms and 1 bathroom. In the main bedroom we find a large room that houses a stone fireplace on the wall. In the other bedroom you find a small font for holy water. Both from the upstairs living room and the master bedroom, we can go out to a covered balcony that allows us to observe the wonderful natural surroundings and listen to the birds. From this balcony we also have access to that double-height bedroom or room that was formerly the cellar. The house has a large plot of 3207m2. From the area where the house is located we have hiking trails and the enclave has buildings and extensive history. Ideal for those seeking to connect with mother earth and the tranquility of the countryside
