

country house for sale Tarifa, Campo De Gibraltar

In the privileged coastal enclave of Tarifa, in the province of Cádiz, an extraordinary 11-hectare rustic estate is offered for sale, located practically on the seafront, within the protected environment of the Strait Natural Park, one of the most spectacular natural areas in southern Europe.~Just 200 metres from a fine golden sandy beach with crystal-clear waters and moderate waves, the property enjoys an exceptional location in a very low-density area, ideal for those seeking privacy, nature and absolute tranquillity.~Within the estate there are several buildings to renovate, adding character and historical value, offering great potential to develop an exclusive and charming project. Furthermore, according to the park regulations, the construction of an agricultural or livestock building (horses, cattle, etc.) is permitted, expanding its possibilities.~From its natural viewpoint over the Strait of Gibraltar, the estate offers breathtaking panoramic views towards the coasts of Algeciras, Tarifa and the African continent. A privileged setting from which to observe migratory birds, cetaceans and constant maritime traffic including cargo ships, tankers, naval vessels and leisure boats.~Just 60 metres from the entrance to the property, cliffs and tidal flats turn every walk into a unique experience. The surroundings invite you to enjoy numerous outdoor activities: horse riding, swimming on almost virgin beaches, diving, fishing, paddle surfing, surfing, mountain biking or hiking along ancient fortifications and coastal paths with spectacular sea views.~The estate is also located next to a little-known stage of the Camino de Santiago, adding cultural value to its privileged location.~An exceptional opportunity for investors or nature lovers wishing to acquire a unique seafront enclave in one of the most impressive landscapes of the Andalusian coastline.~~More properties at finquesmar.es
