

house for sale Alcoi 03803, Alcoia

Discover this exclusive property located in a privileged landscape between mountains. A house built at the beginning of the century and preserving many original features. Nowadays this house functions as a rural house offering retreats and workshops. The possibilities offered by this house are endless due to its size and state of conservation. There is an individual flat for the owners and then several suites to accommodate both couples and groups. An interior patio adorned with an orange tree and a piece of antique machinery related to the industrial history of Alcoi. A wine cellar worthy of a history documentary. A very large kitchen while the star of the show is the terrace with incredible views of the mountains and access to the covered swimming pool.~This house is looking for a new owner who is looking to be in contact with nature, who is looking for a profitable business or simply a jewel that forms part of the inland mountains of Alicante.~
