

house for sale Altea, Marina Baixa

At the edge of the coast, almost kissed by the waves, lies this old fishermen's house that keeps alive the tradition that shaped the town into what it is today—a village rich in both natural beauty and culture.~~This one-story rectangular building, flooded with natural light in every corner, with 350m2 of usable space and high ceilings, offers unparalleled potential. Transforming it into a unique single-family home is the dream of a select few. The house is also divided into three 73m2 apartments and a 140m2 commercial space with the possibility of adding a mezzanine. Not to mention the 28.30-meter parking space and its charming balcony overlooking the Mediterranean, which you can enjoy upon opening the main doors.~~In short, this property by the sea, like few others, not only offers a direct connection to the region's fishing tradition but also the opportunity to live in a place filled with culture, art, and serenity. Let your imagination soar and picture the evenings on the terrace as the sun sets on the horizon. This is where dreams blend with reality, and the fishing heritage comes to life to enrich the present even more.
