

house for sale Artà, Nord

This rectangular plot of land, in Sa Coloni de Sant Pere, 500 meters from the charming village and marina, offers a privileged location with views of the mountains to the south and the sea to the north and east. Its tranquil environment all year round makes it an idyllic place to build your home. With direct access from the road, the property has company water and electricity, which facilitates its development. In addition, a licensed project is included for a 470 square meter house with the flexibility to modify the interior layout and adapt it to your needs. The added advantage is the license already granted, which saves two years of waiting, and the possibility of adjusting the project for a Passivhaus house.
