

house for sale Benadalid, Serranía De Ronda

Joaquín and Esperanza's house is in one of the most beautiful streets of Benadalid in the Sierra de Ronda, it has 56 square meters and a patio of 9 square meters. It has space for four people. It has a living-dining room with a sofa bed, the fireplace presides over the room making it a cozy space, the fully equipped typical village kitchen and a small patio make up the ground floor. A wooden staircase open to the kitchen leads to the upper floor where the main room and bathroom are located. The house has been completely renovated preserving the essence of a traditional village house. From the windows you will see a paradise full of mountains and nature where you can walk through the different hiking trails, practice some adventure sport, etc. as well as enjoy a swim in its municipal pool in summer and taste the typical foods of the area in the bars and restaurants of the town. In Benadalid you can walk through its white and narrow streets always with the mountains in the background, enjoy its festivals, the pilgrimage of San Isidoro in April, its Fair and the Moors and Christians Festival in August. Benadalid is located 20 minutes from Ronda and 40 from San Luis de Sabinillas and Estepona (Málaga) a perfect enclave in the Genal Valley for lovers of the mountains and close to the sea to enjoy a beautiful day at the beach
