

house for sale Benigánim, Vall D''albaida

For sale privately - + (please use the form to respond)

-renovated two-story duplex house located in the heart of town, meters from the town hall and the main square. It is a single registered property. The two homes together have a total of 214 m2 (land registry data). - First floor apartment: 131 m2. - Second floor apartment: 79 m2 plus 11 m2 of unobstructed walkable terrace. (See plans). If you are interested, segregation can be done, as each floor and level has its own completely independent access, as well as its respective individual rooms. - A complete roof renovation was carried out by an architectural firm; the floors on both floors were reinforced; the ceilings were lowered, and interior electricity was installed. All the work carried out is included in an extensive dossier that will be given to the interested party. - Property built in 1920 with a classic architectural façade. The front faces west and the back faces east. - The garage is owned by another owner. No utility connections.-
