

house for sale Calvià, Ponent

Located in the Portals area, this townhouse is set within a private community with good access to services and transport connections, just 5 minutes from the port. The property is close to the beach and Agora Portals International School, making it a practical option for both a primary residence and a second home.~~Externally, the property features a private terrace in the inner part of the complex, including a laundry area. It also offers a balcony-like space connected to the living room, providing access to the outside. In addition, the property includes private outdoor parking and a garage.~~The interior has been fully renovated. It is distributed into three full bedrooms and fully refurbished bathrooms. The property is delivered empty, with a kitchen equipped with brand-new appliances and updated finishes, including new stone surfaces.~~Improvements include Climalit windows and aluminum exterior shutters with a wood-effect finish. The full renovation allows for immediate occupancy, with updated installations and materials, offering a functional base ready to be personalized.
