

house for sale Campos, Sud

Located in the municipality of Campos, this rustic finca is set in a quiet and authentic environment in the south of Mallorca, characterized by its agricultural landscape and proximity to some of the island's most valued beaches. The area offers privacy along with good connections to essential services and easy access to Palma and the airport.~~Externally, the property maintains a solid and traditional presence, with an original structure dating back to 1600. Although the façade was rendered in the 1980s, it retains thick stone walls that provide natural thermal insulation. From the private upper terrace, there are open panoramic views over the rural surroundings of Campos.~~The interior is distributed over three levels and has been renovated for modern living. The ground floor features a living room with fireplace, a traditional Mallorcan kitchen also with fireplace and pantry, and two full bathrooms. The first floor offers four double bedrooms and an additional room suitable as an office or reading area.~~The second floor provides a spacious multipurpose room with direct access to the terrace, adding versatility to the property. The house combines traditional elements with functional spaces, standing out for its solid construction and potential for customization.
