

house for sale Carcaixent, Ribera Alta

Charming house with great potential, very close to the historic center of town. Distributed over three floors: a ground floor, two upper floors, and an attic. The different floors are separated by grand staircases. The rooms are very spacious, offering many possibilities. There is the possibility of dividing it into several apartments. Carcaixent is a town located just 30 minutes from Valencia and has many amenities, including shopping centers (Ribera del Xúquer), the Hospital de la Ribera, health centers, a train station (RENFE), urban and intercity bus services, shops, and countless bars and restaurants. It is worth noting that it has a university offering undergraduate degrees such as teaching, pedagogy, and nursing. It also has several public and private secondary schools and vocational training centers, offering secondary education, baccalaureate, and vocational training, as well as public, semi-private, and private schools. Its proximity to the A-7 motorway and the AP-7 toll road is noteworthy, facilitating connections to the rest of Spain. The surrounding area boasts natural parks with a great diversity of flora and fauna, ideal for immersing oneself in nature.
