

house for sale Deltebre, Baix Ebre

~House for renovation located in a very quiet residential area of Deltebre, just a short distance from the Ebro River and the riverside promenade. A property with great potential for those looking to create a custom home in a natural and well-connected environment.~The property has a plot area of 1,782 m², offering a large piece of land with multiple possibilities for outdoor use, such as a garden, relaxation area, or additional space according to the future owner's needs.~The main building, dating from 1940, has approximately 89 m², plus a storage building of around 21 m². The house is currently in a ruinous condition and requires a complete renovation, allowing the spaces to be redesigned and the charm of a traditional home to be restored while adapting it to modern living.~Its location is one of its greatest attractions: a quiet residential area close to the river and the riverside promenade, ideal for enjoying the surroundings of the Ebro Delta, walking, relaxing, and living surrounded by nature.~An interesting opportunity for those looking for a spacious property in Deltebre and wishing to restore a character-filled home in a privileged location.~
