Two-story house with garden, swimming pool and parking located in Espartinas, a town in Seville's Aljarafe 18 km from Seville.

This property is currently in the final phase of the foreclosure process, with only the auction date remaining to be set. It can be awarded for any amount exceeding €251,633. The market value of properties similar to this ranges from €383,000 to €477,000 with an average value of €433,000. Although it is impossible to know when the auction will be held, we estimate that it will take place in a few months, so there is time for those interested to plan their participation in the auction.

El Aljarafe is a region located in the province of Seville, in Andalusia, Spain. The 30 municipalities that make it up bring together more than 390,000 inhabitants, making up the largest urban agglomeration in the south of the country, the Metropolitan Area of Seville.

The southern end of the region is just 7 km from the Atlantic Ocean to the south and 112 km from the Strait of Gibraltar. The Guadalquivir River separates it from the Andalusian capital, just 2 km along the Quinto Centenario Highway.
