

house for sale Jijona, Alacantí

Live history: Historic house in the heart of the village, full of charm and character."

Discover this unique gem in the heart of the historic centre of Jijona, next to the emblematic castle. This spectacular village house, completely renovated and decorated with exquisite taste, combines traditional charm with modern comforts.

The property, bright and spacious, has five floors (including a basement) and two facades that provide exceptional natural lighting. Its original construction, solid and in perfect condition, has been updated with top quality materials: solid pine carpentry, Climalit windows, porcelain stoneware and natural ceramic floors, as well as a central ventilation system. It is delivered fully equipped and furnished in an elegant rustic style, taking care of every detail in ceilings, walls and floors.

The main living room connects to an outdoor terrace with a barbecue area, ideal for enjoying the outdoors. The independent kitchen, with an office area, is fully equipped and has a laundry room, ironing room and pantry. The house offers four bedrooms (two with balcony), two full bathrooms and a toilet, distributed in a functional way to maximize comfort.

Located in a quiet and private environment, this house is just a few steps from the center of the town and all necessary services. It is perfect for those looking for an exclusive home, with character and a privileged location.

A unique opportunity to live surrounded by history and style!
