

house for sale Manilva, Costa Del Sol Occidental

Surrounded by greenery and with open views over the golf course, this charming threebedroom townhouse is a fantastic choice for those seeking peace, generous outdoor space, and a great location in LaDuquesa, Manilva. Built in a Mediterranean style, the property offers 163m2 of built space distributed over two comfortable levels that combine functionality, brightness, and privacy. The layout includes spacious, wellconnected rooms: on the ground floor a cosy living-dining room with fireplace—perfect for winter evenings—opens onto a sunny southfacing terrace and an expansive private garden of 132m2 with an alfresco dining area, sunloungers, and mature vegetation. Upstairs, a second terrace facing east allows you to enjoy the morning sun, relaxing golf views, and the pleasant sea breeze. The house features three double bedrooms, two full bathrooms (one en suite), and a guest toilet on the ground floor. The independent kitchen is fully equipped and has a convenient laundry area. Marble flooring throughout adds a sense of quality, and air conditioning with heat pump ensures comfort all year round. The gated residential complex offers a single communal pool framed by landscaped gardens and wellmaintained shared spaces, creating a tranquil, familyfriendly atmosphere. Location is one of this property's greatest strengths. Nestled in a quiet residential enclave yet close to all amenities, it is only a threeminute drive—or a pleasant 15minute walk—from the lively LaDuquesa Marina, brimming with international restaurants, cafés, shops, and water activities. The sandy beaches and the seafront promenade linking to Sabinillas are equally close, making it easy to enjoy the coast and long seaside strolls. Supermarkets, pharmacies, banks, and sports centres lie within a fiveminute drive, which makes the home practical for yearround living. Golf lovers will appreciate the proximity to prestigious courses such as DoñaJulia, FincaCortésín, and CasaresGolf—all less than ten minutes away. Road connections are excellent: Estepona is just ten minutes, Sotogrande fifteen, and Málaga International Airport a little over an hour. For added convenience, the property includes a covered carport inside the gated community. In short, this townhouse combines the charm of a private residence with generous outdoor areas, the convenience of a wellkept urbanisation, and the advantage of being close to the sea and every service. Ideal as a permanent residence or holiday home, it is a wonderful opportunity to embrace the relaxed, sunny lifestyle of the Costa del Sol.
