

house for sale Monóvar, Vinalopó Mitjà

The house needs a complete renovation to live in, but it has plenty of space. On the ground floor, you have many square meters and a large semi-covered area for outdoor living. You will find ample space in an area where you can live among nature and enjoy the tranquility of not having many neighbors. The location offers everything needed for daily life and is easily accessible from major communication routes. It's less than 40 minutes away from beaches, shopping centers, train stations, airports... If you're looking to invest, vacation rentals could provide good income opportunities. Don't hesitate to get in touch so that your new project becomes a reality as soon as possible.
