The name O Rosal, Pontevedra, perfectly defines the location where it is located. It is an extraordinary enclave in the border of Galicia, when it begins to become Portugal, separated only by the Río Miño. O Rosal (El Rosal in Spanish) tells us about a beautiful flower that grows in an environment and an extraordinary climate. An idea of the softness of winter is the average temperature of January, the coldest month of the year, which is 10oC in the O Rosal area. Therefore there are numerous vineyards of rich white wines, at the southern end of the rías Baixas denomination, some considered the best white wine in the world.

Its location is the key to everything: stunning, on the banks of Minho, surrounded by beaches and hills; but only 60 minutes from Porto Airport. And 48 minutes from Vigo and its airport

Just 10 minutes drive through the new bridge, you will find Vila Nova de Cerveira in Portugal, You have the opportunity to enjoy the history, color and traditions of another country. The proximity of the Atlantic Ocean and the numerous beaches of both countries offer a wide range of sports activities such as surfing, kitesurfing and sailing. There are many places of natural beauty in the surrounding area, for walking, cycling or bathing in crystal clear waters.
