

house for sale Pratdip, Baix Camp

If you've ever dreamt of waking up to mountain views and the sound of nothing but birdsong, read on. Imagine waking to birdsong. You open the shutters and there it is, the magnificent ridge of the Sierra de Llaberia, bathed in the soft gold of the morning light. A stillness so complete that nature itself seems to hold its breath. This is what awaits you here, every single day of the year.~~Set within a plot of over 2,000 sqm of unspoilt Mediterranean landscape, this exceptional property brings together absolute privacy, a truly privileged natural setting and a quality of life that has become increasingly rare to find. Whether you are looking for a permanent home to put down roots, or a private retreat where the world simply falls away, this is a place that will stay with you long after you leave.~~The green house is a world entirely its own. Its spacious, light-filled sitting and dining room offers views across the Sierra de Llaberia that shift and evolve with the seasons, the kind of views you never quite tire of. Two bedrooms, one with its own independent entrance offering complete privacy and autonomy for guests, along with an additional WC, create a layout that is as practical as it is refined. Outside, a covered porch with a summer dining area and terrace sets the scene for the sort of long, leisurely Mediterranean evenings that linger in the memory.~~The green house is a world entirely its own. A fully equipped kitchen opens into a bright and welcoming sitting and dining room, with direct access to the terrace, the natural setting for long lunches and unhurried afternoons in the open air. The principal bedroom suite, with its generous windows framing the mountain beyond, ensures that every morning begins with one of the finest views imaginable. Two further double bedrooms, served by a well-appointed shared bathroom, complete a layout that has been thoughtfully considered for comfort at every turn.~~At the heart of the outdoor space, a generous swimming pool surrounded by Mediterranean gardens invites you to do very little at all. Sit. Breathe. Listen. Nothing but the breeze through the pines and the Sierra stretching out before you.~~The property has been carefully renovated to honour its original character, with considered design details that quietly elevate each space. Pellet stove heating, a log-burning fireplace and air conditioning throughout ensure comfort whatever the season.~~And when the pull of the coast or the city calls, everything is well within reach, the beaches of the Costa Dorada are just ten minutes away, and the centre of Tarragona a mere thirty minutes by car. The very best of both worlds, in perfect balance.~~Don't wait. Come and experience it for yourself. Some properties can't truly be described, they simply have to be felt. This is one of them.
