

house for sale Quatretondeta, Comtat

We present a different property, something unique and at the same time special. A building full of history and now with a chance to come back to life. It is the old barracks of the Guardia Civil. With more than 600m2 built, currently divided into 8 independent houses and with a plot of 1500m2. It has spectacular views and the surroundings of a village located in the heart of the mountains of Alicante, gives it a very special charm. ~This is a product for investors or for someone who has a project something out of the ordinary.
