

house for sale Santa Cruz De La Zarza, Mesa De Ocaña (La)

Manchega House s. XVII

The house has a cobbled entrance or hallway leading to a patio. Around it are all the rooms and within them are other adjoining rooms, all exterior and with windows.

On the ground floor you can find living rooms, bedrooms, office, kitchen, bathrooms, among others.

From the completely open patio, you access a gallery running through a large hardwood staircase.

In this gallery there are several rooms, many now connected to each other, which can be divided into rooms. Most are exterior and have balconies overlooking the main street.

What makes the house more attractive is the wine cellar with a press that remains in very good condition over the years.

Outside is the large cobbled patio/garden, with a well, garages and other areas with the possibility of large developments.

Representative façade with shield, chimneys, and solid wooden windows and doors.

The house is to be renovated. The photos that appear in the advertisement show a possible decoration once ready.

It is a fantastic house for total disconnection, tranquility, relaxation and nature.

Located 77 km from Madrid and 58 minutes by car on A3 and 17 km from Tarancón.

In the surroundings there are hiking trails, tourist routes and various activities.

Close to the Medical Center, shops and bus lines.

Great opportunity.
