

house for sale Terrades, Alt Empordà

History, quality, and privacy are the three adjectives that define this property. A rustic village house between terraced walls, brand new and looking for a new family, fully restored with top-quality materials and located in the middle of the village, with a mix of fine materials such as stone walls, Catalan adobe, wood, and iron, but with the necessary touch of modernity. In short, a home that combines comfort, convenience, and the spirit of the rustic spaces of the Empordà. The ground floor houses the entire living area with an exterior exit, where the summer porch is located. The upper floor is configured as a sleeping area, with a second living room. The attic is configured as a large storage space. In Terrades Village, you will find everything you need for everyday life—we make special mention of its traditional bakery—and is located in one of the most attractive natural areas in inland Girona, very close to the Sanctuary of Health and the Chapel of Santa Magdalena (a pilgrimage site). Are you surprised and speechless? This property will undoubtedly make your stomach tingle. I'm waiting for you!
