This picturesque place stands out for its excellent location, which combines proximity to the Mediterranean coast with the beauty of its inland landscapes.~~The municipality has more than 4 kilometers of beaches of fine sand crystal clear waters, such as Playa de Mil Palmeras, Playa del Conde and Playa de las Higuericas. These Blue Flag-awarded beaches are ideal for sunbathing, swimming and water sports such as surfing and snorkelling.~~The old town of Pilar de la Horadada offers a rich history and cultural heritage. Among its historic buildings are the Church of Nuestra Señora del Pilar, from the 18th century, and the Torre Vigía, from the 16th century. In addition, there are several museums and cultural centers that reflect local history and traditions.~~The natural environment is also a great attraction, with hiking and cycling routes that run through impressive landscapes such as the Lagunas de La Mata and Torre Vieja Natural Park. This environment is ideal for lovers of nature and outdoor activities.~~Pilar de la Horadada offers a wide range of services and amenities, including health centers, schools, supermarkets, bars and restaurants. The gastronomic offer is varied, with a mix of traditional Mediterranean cuisine and culinary innovations.~~The municipality is well connected, close to the AP-7 highway and the N-332, which facilitates access to nearby cities such as Murcia, Cartagena and Alicante. In addition, the airports of Murcia-Corvera and Alicante-Elche are within a convenient distance, offering national and international connections.
