terraced house for sale Olvera, Sierra De Cádiz

This townhouse certainly comes with the most astounding views! This three bedroom house is situated in the old part of town, in a peaceful secluded street, close in proximity to the towns main church. The townhouse comprises of three double sized bedrooms, a good size kitchen, family bathroom, dining room, a salon and a large external storage room leading from the patio with incredible views of the surrounding countryside that certainly has the wow factor! Entering the property from the street, the patio is enclosed with ample space for a table & chairs to enjoy those incredible views. Leading off the patio, on the side of the house, is a large storeroom, just waiting to be converted into an additional living space of your choice. As you enter through the property's front door, you step into the entrance hall, with the dining room off to the left, which then leads to through to the kitchen. The kitchen is a great size, with plenty of storage space and a large fridge freezer and washing machine currently in situ. The family bathroom leads off from the kitchen, with a full sized bath, toilet, washbasin & bidet. From the entrance hallway, straight ahead is the salon, with the staircase leading up to the three double bedrooms and family bathroom. Upstairs, all three bedrooms are a great size, each with ample room for a double bed and wardrobe space. The large master bedroom has plenty space for a double bed, chest of drawers & wardrobe space & there are two windows to the front of the property, each looking out onto those amazing views. The second bedroom again comes with space for a double bed and wardrobe space, alongside the third bedroom, which currently has three single beds & has a Juliet balcony with double doors that open up to really take in those incredible views.
