Imposing Double-Fronted Village Property with Garden, Garage and Large Roof Terrace - Torre Alhaquime, Inland Andalusia This impressive double-fronted property is located on the edge of the charming village of Torre Alhaquime in inland Andalusia, just a short drive from the famous white village of Setenil de las Bodegas. The house sits on a generous plot and benefits from a garden area, garage and useful storage space located beneath the main house, accessed from the side. The property's attractive facade features large windows and balcony doors on the upper level, allowing plenty of natural light. To the side of the property there is ample parking space along with seating areas where you can enjoy the peaceful surroundings. Upon entering the house, there is potential to divide the property into two independent apartments. Currently, the ground floor comprises a spacious living area with a kitchen-diner, a separate dining room with the staircase leading to the first floor, a large sitting room, and a generous double bedroom with beautiful countryside views. This level also includes a washroom and a full shower room. Upstairs you will find three large bedrooms and a family bathroom, a layout that could easily function as a self-contained apartment if desired. A further staircase leads to the expansive roof terrace, which spans the full footprint of the house and offers wonderful panoramic views of both the village and the surrounding countryside. The property is well maintained throughout. While the ground floor is ready to move into, the house would benefit from some updating and renovation upstairs and downstairs, offering excellent potential to create a substantial family home or a property with rental possibilities.
